Young Eagles Day September 28th 2013: by Bruce Campbell

Saturday was a perfect day for 36 young eagles that got to fly at the Hawkins County Airport in Surgoinsville, as EAA442 chapter took to the air. The YE are those between the ages of 8 and 17. There were 6 pilots flying four types of aircraft. Hamburgers and hotdogs were available as well as funnel cakes for a donation. Each Young eagle received a photo of them with the pilot and airplane, a log book to record their flight in, a certificate signed by the pilot and information about flying and the young eagles program. Bruce Campbell the chapter YE coordinator suggest that YE may want to check out the youngeagles.org (where their names are entered into the world's largest log book) or the eaa442.org websites. Thus far this chapter has flown 48 YE this year.
